1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air. It felt like a warm blanket after a long winter.
 The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were chirping happily.
 I took a deep breath and felt a sense of peace wash over me.
 It was exactly what I needed.
 I had been so stressed lately,
 but here, in this beautiful place, everything felt so right. I was finally home.
